

Land of Band and Color Guard

End of the Winter Season

The Winter Season officially comes to a close with WGASC Championships! Our Winter Guards had a great season and we are very proud of their accomplishments. Our A Guard competed on Saturday and earned a Bronze Medal by placing 3rd in their round! They also earned the opportunity to perform again on Sunday by being among the Top 15 Scholastic A Groups! Our World Guard will also be competing on Sunday and we will have those results for you next week.

President's Notes

I'm currently in the stands at a packed finals competition. Our A guard had an action packed weekend. On Saturday they turned in an amazing performance and qualified for finals on Sunday where they placed 11th in their division! World Guard performed and had a stellar show. Congratulations on your silver medal win! Also, join me in wishing our Jazz bands the best of luck as they head up to championships in Folsom, CA!
